

DISCOVER THE HIDDEN GEMS IN YORK!

HIDDEN YORK DISCOVERED

20 – 22 JUNE 2012

Tour Code – HYDJNE

If you think you knew York...think again. This is a unique tour exploring the Hidden Gems of this wonderful City that you may not even know exist!

Highlights Included in Your Tour

Multangular Tower and Roman Walls, is one of the most spectacular Roman Buildings in Britain with stonework and tile layers in extremely good condition and a tower standing over 20 feet in height.

St Mary's Abbey and Walls are hugely impressive and were once part of one of the tenth richest abbeys in England.

King's Manor, a remarkable late medieval building with 16th and 17th century additions and many very interesting and original features.

Holy Trinity Church, boasts a magnificent interior 'caught in time' with delightfully warped box pews, leaning medieval pillars and much more!

Roman Bath Museum is a real hidden gem below ground and contains remains of the Baths with Roman artefacts and replica articles of everyday Roman life.

All Saints Church has remarkable surviving medieval stained glass depicting very rare scenes indeed.

Merchant Adventurers Hall, is arguably the most impressive medieval guildhall in Europe. It was one of the first medieval buildings in England to use brick and is a 'must see' gem inside and out.

East Side City Walls & the Red Tower, scene of murder, mob rule and intimidation in the 15th century!

Dick Turpin's Grave, the famous highwayman was hanged at the Tyburn on 19 April, 1739.

Other Hidden Treasures, including one of the oldest domestic Houses in England, hidden sculptures and historic Houses.
