HISTORIC LINCOLN: 2,000 Years of History 03 – 05 June 2011 Tour Code - HLJUNE

If you haven't visited Lincoln before, we think you will be pleasantly surprised by this beautiful historic city. It is a hidden gem in England's heritage crown.

Highlights Included in Your Tour

Lincoln Cathedral, arguably the best Medieval Cathedral in Europe. We will fully explore the outstanding architecture of this magnificent cathedral.

Lincoln Castle, an imposing Norman castle with its towers and the only surviving 'Separate System' prison chapel left in the world. The 'long drop' for hanging criminals was invented here.

Medieval Bishops Palace, The evocative remains of the Medieval Bishops' Palace will be explored. It was here that Catherine Howard had an indiscretion which later led to her being beheaded.

Walking Tour of Historic Lincoln exploring the unspoilt medieval streets of Lincoln, including, the Medieval and Georgian Cathedral Close, the Roman walls and gates above and below ground. The 'mint wall', the largest non-defensive Roman wall still standing in Britain and the Roman Newport arch.

Award Winning Museum, private tour with one of the museum curators of this new archaeology museum.
